

Port call in Belém

STOPOVER

4
days

Tara stopped in Belém, Brazil, as part of the Mission Microbiomes, one of AtlantECO's expedition which is currently going down the Brazilian coast.

SCHOOLS

During the event, schools visited the boat and met the crew to learn about the Ocean and the Mission Microbiomes

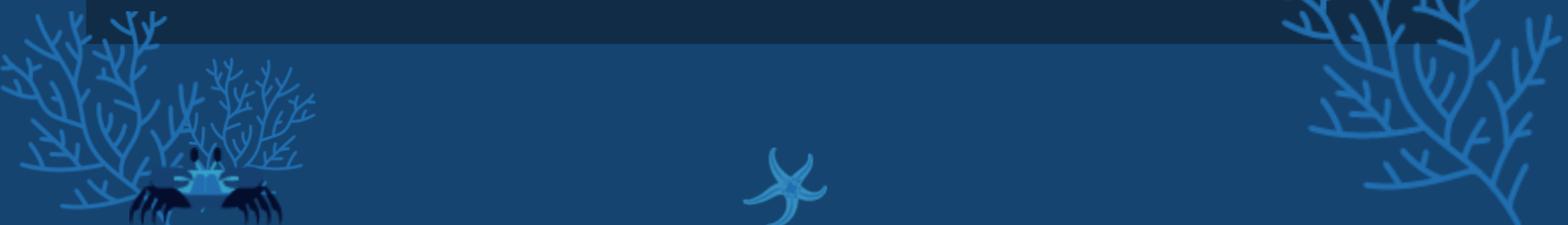

170
pupils

LOCAL SUPPORT

20
volunteers

The success of our port calls depend on the engagement from the local population and students.

Port call in Belém

EXHIBITION

Many people came to visit the exhibition on display at the peer, learning more about the importance of AtlantECO

2000
visitors

SCIENCE CONFERENCE

40
attendees

AtlantECO Brazilian partners and PIs organised a conference to present the Mission Microbiomes and the AtlantECO project to local academic

PRESS

The event was well covered by the local press with web, printed and televised news articles produced.

14
articles

